

Comfort One Another

Blessed comfort in the Scriptures
Reassures the anxious soul
It's the promise of the Rapture--
Word to comfort and console.
Yes the church will be translated
'Fore the coming wrath-filled day--
Not appointed unto judgement,
Christ will whisk His Bride away.

None can know the time exactly
It will happen in a blink
So be ready for departure,
Might be nearer than you think.
No specific sign to warn us,
Like a thief that Day will come,
Day appointed by the Father
When the Church's time is done.

Though our hope is mocked by skeptics,
Though the fallen world oppose
We are certain of our future;
We will rise as Jesus rose.
One day soon the blast of trumpet
And the great Archangel's shout,
In an instant we're transported--
Christ will call His people out.

"Oh to be with Christ in glory!"
Longing hearts are stirred to sing;
Dead and living Christians raptured
Meet their blessed Lord and King.
What a time of great rejoicing
From all nations gathered home!
Multitudes redeemed by Jesus
Worship 'round the Father's throne.

Bless the Lord with all within you
As you contemplate such things;
Give Him glory, praise and honour--
Lord of glory--King of Kings.
Bless the Lord with great excitement,
Lift your heart and shout with glee--
Bless the Lord without restriction,
What a Day that Day will be!
Bless the Lord without restriction
Glory, Glory, Glory be.

Vincent Lyons.